

NEWS RELEASE

APRIL 5, 2018

Atlanta-based CorpCare Associates, Inc is pleased to announce a new partnership with Life Advantages, who creates engaging, leading-edge self-help, web solutions and resources that complement CorpCare's comprehensive approach.

CorpCare EAP Personal Advantage is an interactive, online service designed to help you build resilience and respond to all of life's challenges. Personal Advantage has over 20,000 resources to offer in the areas of health, resilience, emotional wellbeing, relationships, finances, legal issues, and personal and professional growth.

Each day you are faced with events that can have an effect on you, both personally and professionally. Whether you're having trouble with childcare, your monthly budget, your relationship with a loved one, or any other issue, the effects of that issue are felt in all areas of your life. In order to better prepare yourself for all the challenges you face, we offer information to educate and enlighten you in all major life areas. We hope our assessments, videos, quizzes, courses, articles, calculators, and other resources will offer you and your family assistance and comfort.

To access this new, exciting benefit, please do the following:
